Chambers of the City Council,
City Hall, City of Lodi,
Monday, July 2nd., 1928.

The City Council of the City of Lodi met at 8.15 o'clock p.m. on the date first above written, Councilmen Hale, Roach, Shattuck, Weihe and Spooner present. None absent.

Minutes of the regular meeting of June 18th., the adjourned meeting of June 20th, the adjourned meeting of June 25th., and the adjourned meeting of June 27th., 1928 were read, approved as read and so endorsed by the Mayor.

No persons being in attendance for the purpose of addressing the Council, the order of Public Hearings was passed and the Clerk proceeded to read communications and reports.

C. J. Smith and L. G. Steward applied by letter for license to conduct card and legal dice games at 25 N. Sacramento St. On motion of Councilman Weihe, Roach second, the Clerk and Chief of Police were instructed to issue the license.

The Division Superintendent's office of the Southern Pacific Company submitted an estimate for the placing of a planked crossing complying with the order of the State Railroad Commission at California Street, although the estimate called for an apparent excessive charge, $389.00, the work was ordered as the S.P. Company appeared to be the only party able to do the work.

Chief of Police Christensen applied for leave of absence with pay for two weeks beginning July 5th or 6th, and on motion of Councilman Hale, Shattuck second, the application was granted.

Monthly reports of the Chief of Police and Poundmaster were read and ordered filed, also the quarterly and annual reports of the Chief and Secretary of the Fire Department.

One building permit for replacing fire damaged interior of a dwelling was granted.

Mr. J. A. Henning, representing Lodi Welfare Association, proposed that the City expend $10.00 per month for nine months in maintaining a free employment bureau at the water works. The matter was taken under advisement, the Council favoring its operation under private supervision.

Bills in the amount of $16,189.66 as approved by the Finance Committee were allowed and ordered paid on motion of Councilman Weihe, Roach second.

On recommendation of Supt. Henning and on motion of Councilman Weihe, Shattuck second, the auto allowance of T.R. Smith, Foreman Electrician, was increased to $25.00 monthly.

On motion of Councilman Weihe, the Council adjourned at 11.15 o'clock P.M.

Attest: J. P. Beaudry
City Clerk.

The foregoing minutes read and approved without correction at a regular meeting of the City Council held July 16, 1928.

H. R. Lone
Mayor of the City of Lodi
