INSTRUCTIONS

A committee which files a pre-election campaign statement or abbreviated statement and which, after the closing date of the statement, receives no contributions and makes no expenditures related to the election, may designate the statement a "final statement" by signing this declaration and filing it with the campaign statement.

This declaration may be filed after a previously filed statement if it is determined that the statement should have been designated a final statement. However, the declaration must be filed prior to the filing date of the next statement to avoid late fines.

DECLARATION

As treasurer of the committee filing this (abbreviated) campaign statement, I declare that the committee has not received contributions or made expenditures and has no present intention of receiving contributions or making expenditures related to this election after the closing date of this statement.
