Bio for City Council

November Teen of the Month

Erin Masuoka is a student at Bear Creek High. Erin is the Associated Student Body President at Bear Creek. Erin has exhibited outstanding leadership by representing Bear Creek at numerous school and community functions including opening school assemblies, school board meetings, back to school night, and Stockton all-American City Celebration. She has willingly served as a spokesperson and contributing leader.

November Honorary Teen of the Month

Erin Sherblon is a student at Lodi High. Erin is always working to help others. She helps with the youth group at her church and spends time planning activities. On a recent mission trip she did all the cooking for the mission team. She organized and made the menu. She is so dedicated to God and to others. She is an excellent student and is involved in many school activities.
