NOTICE OF FILING

March 11, 1994

TO: THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA ATTORNEY GENERAL, DEPARTMENT OF GENERAL SERVICES, COUNTY AND CITY OFFICIALS AND INTERESTED PARTIES

Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) filed Application No. 94-03-008 on March 1, 1994, with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) requesting authority to change to a performance-based base revenue mechanism and to create a large electric manufacturing customer class. If approved by the CPUC, after hearings, any change would become effective January 1, 1995.

This initiative builds on cost control and customer pricing measures PG&E began in 1993. It would:

- a) Provide customers with greater rate stability by linking changes in PG&E's non-fuel costs to agreed-upon indexes and targets.

1 b) Let customers and shareholders share the benefits of 2 cost savings and productivity gains by giving PG&E strong,
3 long-term incentives to control costs and customer bills.

4 c) Minimize the number of costly regulatory proceedings
5 by substituting indexes and performance benchmarks for detailed 6 cost estimates and after-the-fact reviews.

7 d) Allow PG&E to offer large electric manufacturing 8 customers a wider range of tariff options, thus encouraging 9 them to stay in California and attracting new businesses and 10 jobs to the state.

11 The requested rate adjustment would result in no
12 change to electric revenues from the majority of PG&E'S 13 electric customers and would decrease electric revenues from 14 the large electric manufacturing class by $26.7 million 15 (-6.3%); an overall decrease from all electric customers of 16 less than 1.0%. The request would increase gas revenues from 17 all gas customers by $34.5 million (1.8%): $29 million (1.7%) 18 from bundled core customers, and $5.5 million (2.5%) from 19 noncore transport customers. The combined electric and gas 20 revenue request would be $7.87 million over rates presently in 21 effect.

22 The state, counties, and municipal corporations, and 23 any other parties interested in the above-mentioned filing can 24 obtain a copy of Application No. 94-03-008 and related 25 testimony upon written request made to Mark R. Huffman, Pacific
