Planning Underway for Kroc Centers

from The Salvation Army Western Territory's New Frontier newspaper

On March 16, 2004, the West's ad hoc strategy group will meet in San Diego at the Ray and Joan Kroc Community Center. This group will focus specifically on the elements of trust parameters, investment advice, project construction and management, and overall program guiding principles for the use of Mrs. Joan Kroc's amazing donation. They will make recommendations to Commissioner Linda Bond for consideration by April 19, 2004.

This group is not responsible for the implementation itself, but for the development of the framework in which the implementation will take place. Participants have varied backgrounds professionally and various levels of knowledge of the Army. It is hoped that the interactions will bring forth strong and sound recommendations for the best use of the donation. The Western Territory is fortunate to have the historical perspective of the San Diego Kroc Center.

It is anticipated that the gift amount for each territory, based on the donation in excess of $1.5 billion dollars, will be around $400 million. This gift will be handled with careful and deliberate thoughtfulness as an investment for the future.

Participants include: Lt. Colonel Donald Bell, Lt. Colonel Kurt Burger, Bill Flinn, Majors Tim and Cindy Foley, Ed Freeman, Sandy Gabel, Major Dave Hudson, Arthur Langley, Irene Lewis, Commissioner Joe Noland, Lt. Colonel Doug O'Brien, Rob Pace, Major Carol Seiler, Captain Kyle Smith, Tom Stein, and Art Stillwell.

Criteria for the locations should be outlined in concept by this group, although specifics will not release until after Bond has decided on the direction to be taken as suggested by the recomme be in prayer for wisdom as this group convenes.

I am told that the person to contact about applying for Community Center funds is Western Territorial Commander, Linda Bond, Commissioner of the Salvation Army. If you search by Google, you will find lots of references.

San Jose and Oakland are lobbying at the mayor and Assembly level -- Jerry Brown, Ron Gonzalez, Assemblyman Don Perata, etc. It sounds like nothing has been decided yet, and it is not too late to get in line.

Commissioner Linda Bond

Commissioner Linda Bond, Territorial Commander, United States Western Territory.

Commissioner Linda Bond became an officer in 1969 from St James Corps, Winnipeg, in the Canada and Bermuda Territory. She served as a corps officer until 1978, when she was appointed sectional officer at the training college. This was followed by a transfer to territorial headquarters in 1982, as secretary for candidates and student affairs.

In 1987 she took command of the Kitchener corps, and in 1989 became assistant principal of the training college in Newfoundland. A transfer to divisional work as divisional secretary came in 1991, and in 1993 the commissioner was appointed divisional commander of the Maritime Division. This was followed by a move to International Headquarters in 1995, as under secretary for personnel, and in 1998 the commissioner became divisional commander of the Central North Division of the United Kingdom Territory.

The commissioner returned to the Canada and Bermuda territory as chief secretary in 1999, and came to her present appointment on 1 July 2002.
