Dear Mr. Kawashima:

On behalf of Soroptimist International of Lodi, the Lodi City Council and the City of Lodi Sister City Committee, may I express sincere appreciation to you for the most beautiful gift of the 12-volume works entitled, "The Traditional Crafts of Japan". These are magnificent volumes and will certainly add to our understanding of Japanese arts and cultures.

At the City Council meeting of June 17, 1992, it was my pleasure as President of Soroptimist International of Lodi to present these volumes to the City of Lodi and the Sister City Committee for their library.

Once again thank you for this outstanding gift and for allowing Soroptimist International clubs throughout the North American continent to be the conduit for such a magnanimous gesture.

Very truly yours,

Alice M. Reimche
City Clerk of the City of Lodi and
President of Soroptimist

Dear Sirs:

First of all, we want to show our high respect to your association for great social contribution activity.

As you may have heard from Mr.Osamu Kaneko,Diamond Inc. has recently published "The Traditional Crafts of Japan", which introduces Japan's all. traditional crafts with pictures, videos and good explanations.

We would like to be of a help for your good understanding of Japanese arts and cultures by donating the complete works of "The Traditional Crafts of Japan" to many libraries in the U.S.A., Canada and Mexico in cooperation with Japanese corporations:

In donating the works to the libraries, we ask your association for cooperation and highly appreciate it in advance.

The works will be delivered to your association in March-April, 1992 via a leading trnsportation company and we want to ask a great favour of you to donate them to the designated libraries within one month from the date of receipt.
