RE: Lodi Arts Commission

December 23, 1987

Dear Rick.

It is with deep regrets and-apologies that I must tender my resignation from a very short term on the Lodi Arts Commission. Being on such a committee has always been important to me as my initial resume indicated. However, the realities of being a single parent, working fulltime and being a working artist have demonstrated to me that I can't "do it ail." I know that meetings are only once a month, but the committee work involved requires time that I just can't seem to find. I was assigned to Find entertainment for the Young Ren. Show, which is not really all that hard a task, but I literally have not had time. I can not do any ~~calling~~ during my work day and mosr evenings get filled clear up to 10 or 11 p.m.

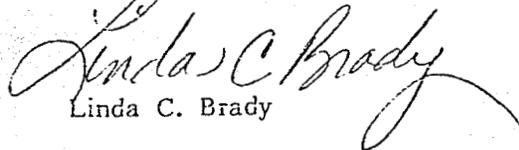

I am sorry to have to leave the commission, I had such high hopes. However, it is better that I resign and allow someone more responsible and time-wealthy to take the seat, than to constantly being in a position to say "sorry, but I haven't had time" to do such-and-so.

Rick, I believe that you are doing a fine job with the commission and I wish you and the commission every good fortune for the community and the arts.

Please express my regrets to the Young Ren. committee for not being able fulfill my assignment, and to the rest of the commission for the inconvenience.

Best wishes to you and your family during this holiday season and for the new year to come.

Sincerely,

Linda C. Brady
