CITY OF LODI
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
COMMISSION
DISBANDED

Following discussion, on motion of Council Member Reid,
Murphy second, Council adopted Resolution No. 84-003
disbanding the City of Lodi Economic Development Commission, and directing the City Clerk to forward a copy of the originating Resolution setting forth the charge of this

Mayor Evelyn Olson
Lodi City Hall
221 W. Pine Street
Lodi, CA 95240

Dear Mayor Evelyn Olson,

The Board of Directors of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce have approved, in their 1984 Plan of Action, the appointment of a Steering Committee to develop and coordinate a committee to encourage Economic Development in the Lodi area.

We will be requesting the members of the present City of Lodi Economic Development Commission to participate as a core group, to aid in the establishment of this committee. We would also appreciate any help or advice the City of Lodi staff can contribute to this effort.

It has been suggested that the City Council consider disbanding the present Economic Development Commission and allow the Chamber's newly proposed committee to explore the subject of Economic Development in the district.

You may recall that in the early 70's the very active Economic Development committee, of the Chamber, was desolved. This action was prompted by a request from the Board of Supervisors when the San Joaquin County Economic Development Association was formed. All chambers in the County cooperated in this joint endeavor.

Times have changed, the potential for new industries and jobs in San Joaquin County needs the active participation of all segments in the County aimed at Economic Development. We feel that the Chamber is the organization best suited for coordinating these efforts.

We look forward to working with the City Council, EDC members and City Staff in coordinating the type of Economic Development that is the most satisfactory and productive for the Lodi area.

Sincerely,
Jerrie K. Abrahamson

Dr. Pete Hetzner
President
Lodi District Chamber of Commerce
215 West Oak Street
Lodi, CA 95240

Dear President Hetzner:

This letter will confirm action taken by the Lodi City Council at its regular meeting of January 4, 1984 following receipt of Past President Jerrie Abrahamson's letter of December 21, 1983 advising that the Board of Directors of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce, in their 1984 Plan of Action, approved the appointment of a steering committee to develop and coordinate a committee to encourage Economic Development in the Lodi area.

The Council adopted Resolution No. 84-003 disbanding the City of Lodi Economic Development Commission effective immediately. At the direction of the Council, I have enclosed a copy of Resolution No. 82-4 which established the subject commission and set forth goals and objectives. A certified copy of Resolution No. 84-003 is also enclosed for your information.

The Council concurs with the various points raised in your December 21, 1983 letter and look forward to working together to encourage economic development within our community.

Very truly yours,

Lodi City Council

Dear Mr. Dillon:

Please be advised that the Lodi City Council received the attached letter from the President of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce advising that the Board of Directors of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce, in approving its 1984 Plan of Action, approved the appointment of a steering committee to develop and coordinate a committee to encourage Economic Development in the Lodi area.

The Council in its regular meeting of January 4, 1984, following receipt of this letter and discussion, adopted Resolution No. 84-003 a Resolution rescinding Resolution No. 82-4 thereby disbanding the City of Lodi Economic Development Commission.

I have been in contact with the Fair Political Practice Commission and have received a ruling that you may consolidate your Statement of Economic Interest Annual Filing with your Leaving Office Filing (a sample cover page is attached). This Conflict of Interest Filing is due in my office no later than April 1, 1984.

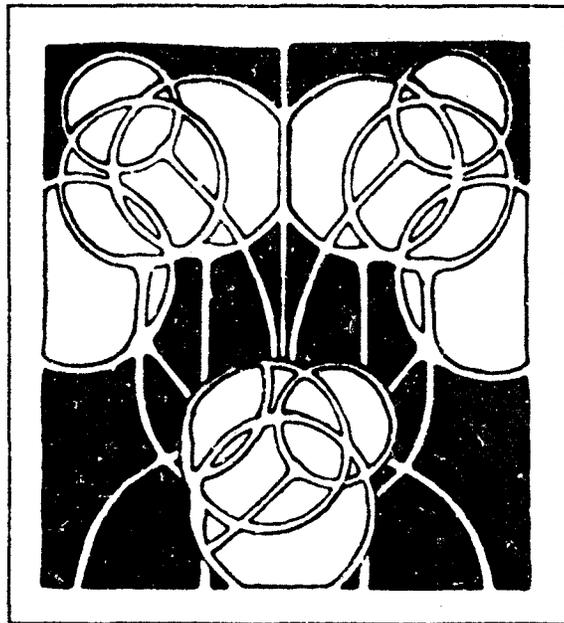

On behalf of the City Council of the City of Lodi, may I extend sincere appreciation to you for the time and effort you committed in serving on this most important commission.

Should you have any questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

Alice M. Reimche

THE
IN LODI

presented by the
LODI ARTS COMMISSION

Friends of the Lodi Library, Inc.

Friends of the Lodi Library is an incorporated non-profit group of individuals, families, and organizations interested in books and libraries. Organized in January, 1979, it is dedicated to supporting the Lodi Public Library in every way possible. The board of directors holds open meetings at 7:30 p.m. each second Thursday in the library's community room. In addition, Friends sponsors a number of varied programs during the year, featuring local and guest presentations; actively supports the library's children's programs; and maintains ongoing services such as art displays, case displays, and a pattern exchange.

Membership is open to everyone: individuals, $2; families, $5; organizations, $10; patrons, amounts of $15 and more. For further information, write to P.O. Box 703, Lodi, CA 95241.

Lodi Writers Association

The Lodi Writers Association was formed in June, 1983, with two primary goals: to create and support a network of communication among community writers, and to encourage and promote the publication of local authors. The group meets from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on the last Monday of each month in the Carnegie library building, 305 W. Pine Street, Lodi. Meetings include an update on current workshops, contests, or other events for writers, followed by informal reading and discussion of members' works. Every three months, there is a guest lecturer. All meetings are open to the public. Speakers from the LWA are available to community groups upon request and for a nominal fee. For further information, dial 334-0603 or write to 606 Daisy Avenue, Lodi, CA 95240. Dues are $1 per month.

Lodi Community Band

Any adult in the community who plays a band instrument is welcome to join the Lodi Community Band and play music for community functions and personal pleasure. There are no dues and no pay. Rehearsals are from 7 to 9 p.m. each Monday in the music building at Tokay High School, 1111 W. Century Blvd., Lodi. Public concerts are performed during the year for Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Grape Festival, Christmas, and for other occasions as requested. For further information write to 106 N. Orange Avenue, Lodi, CA, 95240, or dial 368-2625.

The Poets' Roundtable

The Roundtable is a small informal group which meets once a month in the homes of members. There are no officers and no dues. Participants read their original poems and exchange comments, as well as discussing various disciplines in poetry writing. News of publications, contests, and markets is also exchanged and discussed. The possibility of holding public poetry readings is being contemplated. Anyone seriously interested in writing poetry is welcome to join the group. For further information, dial 369-2268.

Stockton Symphony Association

The Association was established to support and build the Stockton Symphony Orchestra and thus to provide live symphony concerts for communities of San Joaquin and adjoining counties. Thanks to assistance from members and special donors, the Association is able to engage the most excellent guest artists available, and to present six pairs of subscription concerts annually. The orchestra also performs several free concerts in community schools during each season. An annual contribution of $25 or more provides membership in the Association and attendance at the annual spring membership meeting. Further information may be obtained by writing to the Stockton Symphony Association, Inc., P.O. Box 4273, Stockton, CA 95204, or by dialing 1-462-1533.

Lodi League of the Stockton Symphony

The League was organized for the purposes of encouraging attendance at Stockton Symphony concerts and of raising money to enhance the orchestra and its programs. Membership, open to anyone interested in music and the symphony, is $10 a year for active members and $25 for contributing members. Active members work on all projects, which include: assisting with the Symphony Association's season ticket campaign, ushering for at least one concert during the year, and producing the Vintage Pops, an annual afternoon of music and refreshments held on the second Sunday in September. Contributing members may work on projects or attend meetings if they wish. Meetings are held at 11:30 a.m. in the homes of members on the first Tuesday of the month. Times of June, July, and August meetings may differ. For further information, dial 368-6575.

Stockton Chapter,

SPEBSOSA

SPEBSOSA not only perpetuates the barbershop quartet, but seeks to promote and encourage vocal harmony and good fellowship among its members, to educate both members and the public in music appreciation, and to promote public appreciation of barbershop harmony. Membership is open to any adult male of good character and reputation; there is a $7.50 enrollment fee and annual dues are $57. Students may join for $28.50. Chapter activities include an annual November show, a spring show, and occasional quartet or chorus appearances during the year. The group also sponsors a high school quartet contest. Regular donations are made to a high school choral scholarship fund and to the Institute of Logopedics, Wichita, Kansas.

The chapter meets at 8 p.m. every Tuesday in the choral room of Lincoln High School, 69th 1/4 Alexandria Place, Stockton. For further information, write to 322 E. Lancaster Street, Stockton, CA 95207.

Delta Chapter, Sweet Adelines, Inc.

Sweet Adelines, Inc., is an international organization of women whose purpose is to teach and perform the American folk art of four-part harmony, barbershop style, and to encourage an appreciation of the tradition of that music. Delta Chapter members participate in the annual spring Regional Chorus and Quartet Competition, and produce an annual show for the public. The chorus entertains at civic events, club meetings, and other occasions, and endows a scholarship for a Delta College music student.

Sweet Adelines is open to women who enjoy singing barbershop harmony and who can meet membership requirements. Visitors are encouraged to attend rehearsals, held at 7:30 p.m. each Monday in the choral room at Lincoln High School, 6844 Alexandria Place, Stockton. For further information, write to 26 W. Fargo Street, Stockton, CA, 95204, or dial 1-465-4723.

California Confederation of the Arts

CCA is a statewide, non-profit service organization committed to furthering the arts throughout the state. The organization maintains an effective lobbying staff in Sacramento. Membership is open to any interested individual or organization. For further information, contact the Lodi Arts Commission.

The Stockton CHORALE

The Stockton Chorale, while headquartered in Stockton, is composed of singers from throughout San Joaquin County, with many from Lodi. The Chorale proper numbers about 170 voices; from this group are drawn the 64-voice Solo Chorale, the Men's Chorus, the 32-voice Chamber Chorale, and the 8-voice Solo Ensemble.

The Chorale presents regular Christmas and spring pops concerts in addition to appearances with local symphony orchestras and at special community events, an annual TV special, and a series of free concerts with young people at schools in communities throughout the county. In 1981, the group toured the British Isles, and in 1983 journeyed to France and Austria. Plans call for a concert tour of China and Japan in 1985.

Membership, for which there is an annual fee, is by audition with the music director, Dr. Arthur J. Holton. The Chorale season runs from September through June, with rehearsals from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. each Monday in the music room of the Lincoln Senior Elementary School, 1956 Stanton Way, Stockton. For further information, write to the Stockton Chorale, P.O. Box 265, Stockton, CA 95201-0265.

San Joaquin Ballet Association

Although located in its own theater in Stockton, the San Joaquin Ballet is well supported by Lodi citizens, many of whom belong to the SJB Association. Dancers, drawn from throughout the country, now number 80; programming has grown from single concerts in 1964 to a season of three major productions, including a fall International Awards Gala, a Christmas "Nutcracker," and a Spring Concert. Founder and artistic director is Dorothy Percival, who enjoys an international reputation as a director, choreographer, and teacher of dance.

SJB is supported by box office receipts, association memberships, gifts, and grants. Association memberships range from $15 to $1000 or more, with $10 for students and senior citizens. All are tax deductible. Information may be obtained by writing the San Joaquin Ballet Association, 1326 N. San Joaquin Street, Stockton, CA 95202, or dialing 1-477-4141.

Tokay Players, Inc.

Lodi's own community theater began in late 1961 as a Lodi Adult School play production class. In 1966, the Players moved into Pine Alley Theater and became part of the city's Parks and Recreation Department. In 1982 the group came under the auspices of the Lodi Arts Commission, and in 1983 moved into a new theater in the old Hotel Lodi building.

Membership in the Tokay Players is open to anyone of any age interested in play production, theater operation and maintenance, and theater business. No prior experience is necessary. Dues are $5 per year. Tokay Players presents four theatrical productions annually — dramatic, musical, and comedy — and a children's theater production during the summer. Regular board meetings are at 7:30 p.m. on the third Wednesday of each month. For further information, dial 368-2225 or write Tokay Players, Inc., P.O. Box B-31, Lodi, CA 95241.

Lodi Camera Club

The Lodi Camera Club is open to anyone who takes 35mm slides and meets every third Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the community room at Great American Federal Savings, 200 N. Church Street, Lodi. Meetings are devoted to learning and entertainment, including short programs with points on how to take better slides. There are also competitions among members for the best slides. Dues are $10 a couple. For further information, write to 810 York Street, Lodi, CA, 95240, or dial 369-6223.

Music Teachers Association of California

The purposes of the Lodi Music Teachers Association are to promote the welfare of music teachers and to elevate the educational and teaching standards of its members. The group is open to those with a degree in music and/or experience in teaching, education, or performance. Meetings take place in members' homes on the first Tuesday of the month from September to June. Activities and programs include student evaluations, recitals, workshops, musical programs, lectures, and discussions. For further information, write to 1301 Holly Drive, Lodi, CA, 95240, or dial 369-1205.

Lodi Community Concerts Association

Membership in this organization provides the basis for bringing to the community each year a series of concerts by notable instrumental and vocal performers. Artists are selected from a list presented by Columbia Artists Management, Inc. An annual membership drive is conducted in the spring; memberships carry with them season tickets at $15 for adults and $7.50 for full-time students. Concerts for the coming year are then selected by the LCCA board. No tickets to individual concerts are sold, nor are memberships offered except during the annual campaign. Election of officers and new board members is held in May; officers serve for one year, directors for three. There are four meetings of the board each year. For further information, write to 1739 LeBec Court, Lodi, CA 95240, or dial 369-6369.

Lodi Art Center

Founded in 1956 by the late Ethel Bollinger, the Lodi Art Center has a present membership of more than 100. Purpose of the organization is to advance art in the community by bringing artists together and encouraging them to show their work. Membership is open to anyone interested in art; dues are $20 a year. Students may join for $1. Only members may show their work at the Center's gallery at Hutchins Street Square, 600 W. Oak Street, Lodi. Meetings are held at the Center at 7:30 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month (except July and August) at which guest artists present various programs. Center hours are 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, and 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

The Art Center's primary event of the year is the annual Open Spring Show held in May at the Barengo-Lost Hills Winery in Acampo, with up to 900 entries from throughout California and Nevada. A membership show and open house in March is another annual event, and the Center also sponsors adult classes, vacation classes for children, and several social events. For further information, write to P.O. Box 45, Lodi, 95241, or dial 368-4925.

Lodi Gem and Mineral Society

Membership in the Lodi Gem and Mineral Society is open to anyone interested in lapidary. There is an initiation fee of $15 plus annual dues of $10. Meetings are held monthly at 7:30 p.m. on the second Thursday in the community room at Great American Federal Savings, 200 N. Church Street, Lodi. Programs include presentations of geological, historical, or geographical information. The Society sponsors an annual fall Gem Show with displays by individuals and dealers, and operates the Rock Hut, located near Lockeford and Stockton Streets, where lapidary, silversmithing, faceting, and lost-wax casting projects and classes take place. The Hut is open from 9 a.m. to noon each Tuesday and Wednesday and from 7 to 10 p.m. each Tuesday other than the meeting night. For further information, write to 615 W. Locust, Lodi, CA, 95240, or dial 368-1080.

LODI ARTS COMMISSION

The Lodi Arts Commission was established by the Lodi City Council in May, 1982, in recognition of the important part the arts play in the life of any community and its citizens. Itself reflective of the arts by reason of its representative membership, the LAC is pledged to support arts groups and to assist in developing plans and projects which will further the role of the arts within the Lodi community.

The commission consists of fifteen members appointed by the City Council from among applicants. Five appointments are made each year on the LAC's anniversary date. At least eight LAC members must be members of established arts groups; the other seven may be persons who, while not professionally involved, have demonstrated deep interest in and appreciation of artistic and cultural values.

The commission's office at 305 W. Pine Street, Lodi, is presently open from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. each Wednesday; telephone 369-4952. For further information write to the address below.

This brochure has been prepared by the Lodi Arts Commission to make available information about various arts groups in and around Lodi. These groups provide opportunities for those interested to become active in or associated with many artistic endeavors.

Mr. Jim Gerard
Member, City of Lodi
Economic Development Commission
218 West Pine Street
Lodi, CA 95240

Dear Mr. Gerard:

Please be advised that the Lodi City Council received the attached letter from the President of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce advising that the Board of Directors of the Lodi District Chamber of Commerce, in approving its 1984 Plan of Action, approved the appointment of a steering committee to develop and coordinate a committee to encourage Economic Development in the Lodi area.

The Council in its regular meeting of January 4, 1984, following receipt of this letter and discussion, adopted Resolution No. 84-003 a Resolution rescinding Resolution No. 82-4 thereby disbanding the City of Lodi Economic Development Commission.

I have been in contact with the Fair Political Practice Commission and have received a ruling that you may consolidate your Statement of Economic Interest Annual Filing with your Leaving Office Filing (a sample cover page is attached). This Conflict of Interest Filing is due in my office no later than April 1, 1984.

On behalf of the City Council of the City of Lodi, may I extend sincere appreciation to you for the time and effort you committed in serving on this most important commission.

Should you have any questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

Alice M. Reimche
