

CC 2a

CITY COUNCIL MEETING
JANUARY 18, 1984

Page 90

---

PRESENTATIONS

LODI ARTS COMMISSION

Lodi Arts Commission Chairman, Gwin Mitchell gave a progress report on the activities of the Lodi Arts Commission.

---

Alice FYI

LODI ARTS COMMISSION

RECEIVED

1984 JAN 11 PM 1:00
Jan. 11, 1984

ALICE M. REIMCHE
CITY CLERK

"The Arts in Lodi," a brochure containing information about arts groups in and around Lodi, has recently been published by the Lodi Arts Commission and is available for public distribution without charge.

Copies of the brochure are available at the Lodi Public Library, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Arts Commission office, or may be obtained by calling 369-4952 between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. each Wednesday. The LAC office, located in the old Carnegie Library building at 305 W. Pine Street, is open during the same hours. Copies have also been distributed to the arts groups mentioned in the brochure, as well as the advertisers listed there, also.

All arts and artists commercial suppliers were invited to participate when the brochure was being compiled during the past fall. The Arts Commission plans to update the pamphlet annually on a calendar year basis, and invitations to participate will again be sent to all such suppliers, probably during the latter part of the coming fall.

Groups mentioned in the brochure, which is a bright yellow with a contrasting design on the front, include the Friends of the Lodi Library, Lodi League of the Stockton Symphony, Tokay Players, Lodi Art Center, Lodi Writers Association, Lodi Community Band, Poets' Roundtable, Lodi Camera Club, Lodi Gem and Mineral Society, Lodi Community Concerts Association, Lodi Music Teachers Association, Stockton Chorale, San Joaquin Ballet Association, Stockton Symphony Association, Delta Chapter of Sweet Adelines, and the Stockton chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America.