Dear Rick,

Please accept my resignation from the Arts Commission, to be effective on May 1, '987.

Falling down the basement stairs on Sunday has firmly convinced me that I must slow down and function at a less hectic pace.

My time with the Commission has been a very rewarding one, and I thank you all for your help and your friendship.

March 3.

Sincerely,

Sally Humdrey

Dear Rick and Fellow Commissioners,

RECEIVED

1987 APR -3 AM 11: 57

I regret to inform you of my resignation from the Lodi Auto Commission. This come at a bad time for the Commission but this is over due. I feel this group needs members who can be active and attend every meeting or function regularly. I realize that I have been absent for sometime without an excuse. I hope I have not created any hardship on the group.

My intentions were to be an active member but I have ~~been~~ found that my spare time has become scarce with a full-time job and a family. I will do what I can to help out in the future if needed.

Sincerely yours,
Susan Ulbrich
