OLD LODI HIGH SCHOOL
FOUNDATION
ADVISES THEY DO
NOT SUPPORT
SENIOR CITIZEN HOUSING

The City Clerk presented a letter which had been received from Ken Boyd, Chairman of the Old Lodi Union High School Site Foundation, advising that a proposal had been received from the First Congregational Church requesting the sale of two acres of Hutchins Street Square for a senior citizen housing project. Mr. Boyd advises that the Foundation does not support the concept as proposed.

Dear Mayor Olson,

The Old Lodi Union High School Site Foundation has received a proposal from the First Congregational Church requesting the sale of two acres of Hutchins Street Square for a senior citizen housing project. This proposal hinged on the church receiving a loan from H.U.D. to develop the 68 units on the southwest corner of the site.

Our Board has studied the proposal and reviewed the master plan of our community center. It was a unanimous vote by the Board to decline the offer because the proposed project damages the original concept of a cultural and recreation center.

We are flattered the church has such high regard for our project by expressing a willingness to work with us and wish them well in locating another site for senior housing.

Sincerely,

Ken Boyd
Chairman
