LEE EKSTROM
RESIGNS FROM LCDI PLANNING COMMISSION

Following receipt of a letter from Lee W. Ekstrom resigning from the Planning Commission, on motion of Mayor Snider, Olson second, the City Clerk was directed to make the necessary postings for this vacancy.

The Honorable Randy Snider
Mayor, City of Lodi
221 W. Pine Street
Lodi, CA 95240

Dear Mr. Mayor,

It is with deep regret that I must tender my resignation as a Planning Commissioner for the City of Lodi. This resignation will be effective June 30, 1984.

I have enjoyed my tenure on the Planning Commission, and feel proud to have been associated with the people on that Board and with the decisions it has made during the past three years. As I now reside outside the boundaries of the City, I feel that I must resign, so that the people of Lodi will be represented by residents of Lodi.

If I can be of any help in filling the vacancy caused by my resignation, please call me at 334-5551.

Sincerely,

Lee W. Ekstrom

Dear Mr. Ekstrom:

It is with deep regret that the Lodi City Council received and accepted your letter of resignation from the City of Lodi Planning Commission.

On behalf of the City Council, may I extend sincere appreciation to you for the many hours you have contributed to your community in serving on this most important Commission.

Very truly yours,

Alice M. Reimche
City Clerk
