Dear Fred:

It is with sincere regrets that the City Council accepts your resignation from the Lodi Planning Commission.

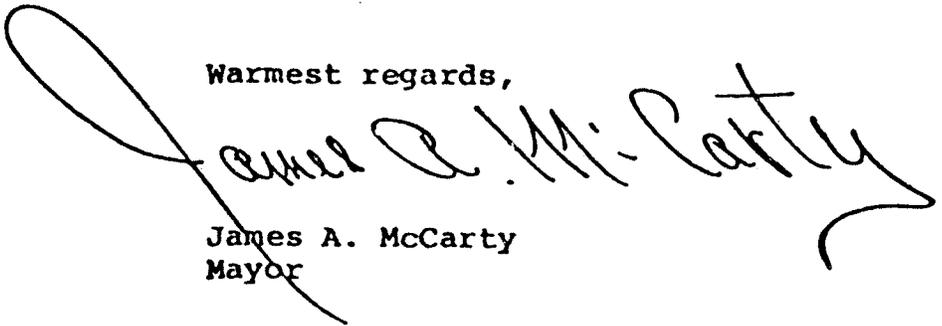

Your service to your City as a member of this most important body for the past thirteen plus years has been appreciated not only by the present City Council, but past Councils and Mayors as well. Your fellow citizens too, I know, are appreciative of the service you have rendered.

The decisions that you have been asked to make during your tenure have not always been popular ones. Many of your deliberations and decisions have not been easy, but you did not fail in your responsibility to do for your community what you thought best. For this you are to be commended.

The Lodi City Council has asked that I convey to you our best wishes for success in all the years to come.

From all of your Councilmen and fellow citizens as well, thanks Fred.

Warmest regards,

James A. McCarty
