Mary Jane Ballatore, 334 Bella Vista Drive, Lodi, addressed the Council requesting that the following Advisory Measure be placed on the November ballot. Following discussion, with questions being directed to the proponents of the Advisory Measure and to Staff, Council, on motion of Council Member Pinkerton, Reid second, denied the request. In its decision, Council indicated its concern that the proposal was premature and needed further study and explanation.

Council further recommended that the proponents of this Advisory Measure (The Citizens for Lodi Creative Arts Center) work with Community Development Director James Schroeder in ascertaining the various requirements that would need to be met in developing this proposal.

Dear Citizens for Lodi Creative Arts Center:

This letter will confirm that the Lodi City Council, at its regular meeting of August 7, 1985, received your formal request to place the following Advisory Measure on the November 1985 ballot:

Shall the City of Lodi make any provisions in the General Plan for an auditorium seating 2000 people?

Shall the City of Lodi amend Measure A (The Green Belt Initiative) to facilitate an auditorium project seating 2000 in the event provision is made in the General Plan for such a project?

Following discussion, with questions being directed to the proponents of the Advisory Measure and to Staff, Council, by motion action denied the request. In its decision, Council indicated its concern that the proposal was premature and needed further study and explanation.

Council further recommended that you work with Community Development Director James Schroeder in ascertaining the various requirements that would need to be met in developing your proposal.

Very truly yours,

LODI CITY COUNCIL
