RESTRICTED (PERMIT)
PARKING RESCINDED
ON FLORA STREET

RES. NO. 86-186

CC-48(1)

Council was reminded that, at its regular meeting of October 1, 1986, the City Council took action to extend the permit parking area in the vicinity of the Pacific Coast Producers Cannery to include Flora Street. This action was at the request of residents of this street who presented a petition in support of permit parking there. At its regular meeting of November 5, 1986, the City Council heard a presentation by a citizen representing his neighbors on that street requesting that permit parking not be imposed. There had apparently been some confusion concerning the circulation and language of the petition. At that meeting Councilmember Hinchman offered to walk the street for the purpose of contacting the residents to determine their true preference. Mayor Reid reported for Councilmember Hinchman at the City Council's regular meeting of November 19, 1986 that, of the 14 homes contacted, residents of 13 were opposed to the implementation of permit parking on Flora Street. Mayor Reid directed that this matter be placed on this agenda for discussion and Council action.

Council Member Hinchman provided additional information regarding his observations.

Following discussion, on motion of Council Member Hinchman, Snider second, Council adopted Resolution No. 86-186 withdrawing Flora Street from the designated permit parking area near the Pacific Coast Producers Plant.

I, Reinhold Hamburger, property owner on the corner of Flora Street & Stockton Street request that the "Lodi City Council" consider placing "no parking signs" on Flora Street
because of the Cannery workers attitude
"we don't care how or where we park"
this they told me, this is a public street.
I am very thankful for the "no signs on Stockton Street.
