9. REGULAR CALENDAR

- a) Council, on motion of Council Member Sieglock, Pennino second, directed staff to revise the Parks and Recreation Master Plan to contain language stipulating the baseball diamonds in Westgate Park shall be limited to the scheduling of practice only, no games, and further, to contain language limiting the age group for scheduled baseball practices to teams with players under the age of 16 years, by the following vote:

Ayes: Council Members - Davenport, Pennino, Sieglock, Warner
and Mann (Mayor)
Noes: Council Members - None
Absent: Council Members - None

FILE NO. CC-2(h) and CC-27(c)

Speaking on the matter were the following:

1. James Bowlds, 436 Black Oak Way, Lodi, spoke in favor of Council revising the Westgate Park design to remove all of the planned sports facilities, thereby leaving the park a green, peaceful space available to all Lodi citizens.
2. Bob Sorenson, 68 North Evergreen Drive, Lodi, spoke in favor of Council revising the Westgate Park design to remove the proposed 90 foot baseball diamond, and expressed concern with possible traffic congestion and safety issues.
3. D. Schenone, 2606 Alder Glen Drive, spoke in favor of Council revising the Westgate Park design to remove the proposed sports facilities and leave the park as it is right now.
4. Ed Wall, Parks and Recreation Commission Chairman, spoke in opposition to Council removing the planned 90 foot baseball diamond at Westgate Park, and commented on the Commission's concern that a parking lot remains a necessary part of the recommended plans. Further, Mr. Wall stated the well-publicized meetings generated a very small turnout from citizens and neighbors regarding Westgate Park's design, and since the 90 foot diamond was a part of the publicized plans approved by Council, he has dealt with much frustration regarding the park's neighbors continued requests for plan revisions.
5. Max Steinheimer, 1410 Mettler Road, Lodi, spoke in opposition to Council eliminating or downsizing the 90 foot diamond, and informed Council there are currently 270 children who will utilize and require access to a 90 foot baseball diamond. Mr. Steinheimer explained the fields would only be schedule for practice from 3:30 to 7:30 in the afternoon, from approximately April through July, and assured Council that only children under the age of 16 years would be scheduled to use the fields for practice.
6. Debbie Sweat, 150 Evergreen Drive, Lodi, spoke in favor of Council revising the Westgate Park plan to remove the 90 foot baseball diamond, and encouraged Council to take the money allotted to Westgate Park to develop DeBenedetti Park instead, leaving Westgate Park alone.
