The meeting was convened at approximately 7:00 p.m.

Following a dinner prepared by the members of the Lodi Arts Commission, the meeting was opened by Arts Commission member Pamela Van Fleet. Ms. Van Fleet urged the City Council to be concerned for the arts. She asked the City Council for increased support of the arts in the form of an expanded budget.

Commission member Marlo Kerner reviewed the coming season's "Friday Night Live" program and distributed copies of the series schedule, as well as the schedule for noon-time concerts. Mr. Kerner discussed his perception of the connection of the arts to the success of the proposed downtown revitalization project.

Commission member Tim Mattheis requested of the City Council that serious consideration be given to the funding of a full-time position of Arts Coordinator.

Commission member Don Levy spoke briefly regarding the Drama Fest.

There was considerable discussion among the Council Members and the Arts Commission regarding the future of arts in the City of Lodi.

There being no further business to come before this joint meeting, the meeting was adjourned at approximately 8:50 p.m.

ATTEST:

Thomas A. Peterson
Deputy City Clerk
