12. COMMENTS BY THE PUBLIC ON NON-AGENDA ITEMS

a) Brian Ochoa, Lodi, submitted a petition to the City Clerk opposing any change to the Post Office parking lot into a Town Plaza. Mr. Ochoa indicated that the petition did not mean that the signers were opposed to revitalization; however, they are opposed to losing the parking lot and would like to see other alternatives explored.

Council Member Mann questioned whether Mr. Ochoa and those who signed the petition were familiar with the plan and if they had received all of the information prior to signing the petition. Mr. Ochoa indicated he had attended one revitalization workshop out of the six and did not believe that a plan actually existed in regards to the parking lot.
FILE NO. CC-16, CC-72 AND CC-400

b) John Kraai, Lodi, expressed his opposition to the Town Plaza, as well, and stated that he has seen the drawings and "they're hiding the parking". The Lodi Sunrise Rotary Club will be having a dunk tank on the same weekend and encouraged the public to attend. Ms. McWilliams commented on the petition that was turned in opposing the removal of the Post Office parking lot and indicated that LDBA also did a petition to get a feeling of what people thought of the idea; however, she did not bring it this evening. Ms. McWilliams encouraged everyone to keep open minds and to work together.
FILE NO. CC-7(p), CC-72 AND CC-400

- d) John Young, Lodi, expressed his disappointment with the City Council in questioning Mr. Ochoa when he spoke in opposition to the Town Plaza. The citizens should feel free to come before the Council and express input in matters whether it is in support of or opposed to an item without being "attacked".

Several Council Members responded that they do treat the public with respect and reminded the public that the revitalization project is not a City Hall project--it is a business community and citizen project.

FILE NO. CC-16, CC-72 AND CC-400

- e) Jeannie Davenport, 445 Almond Drive #45, Lodi, indicated she had signed the petition in opposition to removing the Post Office parking lot because she does not want the Town Plaza at that location.
