

City Hall, City of Lodi
Monday, March 30 - 1925

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi met in adjourned regular session at 8 o'clock P.M. on the above date, Trustees Hale, Mettler, Roach, Shattuck and Spooner present, none absent.

The minutes of the regular meeting of March 16th, 1925 were read, approved as read and so endorsed by the President.

This being the date set by Resolution No. 475 passed March 16th., for the hearing of protests against the opening of Hutchins Street as undertaken pursuant to Resolution of Intention No. 474, adopted January 19th., 1925, and it appearing on affidavit of the Clerk that notice of the time and place of hearing had been duly mailed to the several objectors, the Board proceeded to consider the merit of the objections advanced.

Attorney J.M. McMahon addressed the Board in support of the written objections advanced and advocated the opening of California Street southerly in lieu of the proposed work.

No further persons addressing the Board, Trustee Hale, seconded by Trustee Shattuck introduced Resolution No. 476 and the same was passed and adopted by the following vote:-

AYES: Trustees, Hale, Shattuck, Mettler, Roach and Spooner.

NOES: Trustees, None. ABSENT: Trustees, None.

RESOLUTION NO. 476

RESOLUTION OVERRULING ALLEGED OBJECTIONS TO WORK OR IMPROVEMENT UNDER RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 474.

WHEREAS, on the 19th day of January, 1925, the Board of Trustees and City Council of the City of Lodi, San Joaquin County, California, duly passed and adopted Resolution of Intention No. 474; and whereas notices of the passage of said resolution have been posted, given and published in all respects as required by law and in all respects as required by said Resolution of Intention; and whereas on March 12th., 1925, more than ten days since the completion of the publication of said notices, John H. Brown, E. J. Cain, George Heinitz, George G. Heinitz, George Abbott, John Zobel, John Ehlers, Geo. P. Stafford, J. C. Weinberger, J. F. Terwillager, Jacob Heinitz, W. O. Corell, Wm. H. Menzel, Andrew Rutlick, Wm. Corell, Thomas Huron and Maria Focacci filed with the Clerk of said Board their alleged written objections to the work and improvement mentioned in said Resolution of Intention and to all matters therein contained; and whereas no written objections and no objections whatever have been made within ten days since the completion of the publication of said notices, which time of publication expired on February 27th, 1925; and whereas said Board of Trustees did on March 16th., 1925, and without waiving the fact that said alleged written objections of said protestants and objectioners were not filed within the time allowed by law, fix a time, to-wit, March 30th., 1925 at eight o'clock in the afternoon for hearing said alleged objections; and whereas the said City Clerk thereupon notified the said protestants and objectioners of the time fixed for the hearing of their alleged objections, by depositing a notice thereof in the Post Office of said City, with postage prepaid, addressed to each of said objectioners; and said alleged objections coming on duly and regularly to be heard at the time specified in said notice, to-wit, at eight o'clock in the afternoon on March 30th., 1925; and said Board having fully heard the same and all evidence and matters submitted in support thereof;

BE IT RESOLVED: That said alleged objections of said protestants and objectioners and the whole thereof are without merit and said alleged objections and each and all thereof are hereby overruled.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That although the said Board of Trustees has heard and decided said alleged objections upon their merits, said Board and City Council has not and does not waive the fact that said alleged objections of said protestants were not filed within the time allowed by law.

The Clerk read a letter from the local W.C.T.U. thanking the Board for their enforcement of the "Curfew Ordinance"

The application of Angelo Palermo for permission to install a grass sign in front of his ice-cream factory at Oak and Garfield Streets with the interior side above the side-walk grade was referred to the City Planning Commission on motion of Trustee Shattuck.

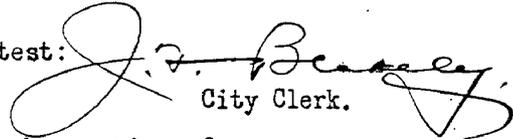

Clyde S. Jackson submitted a verbal proposal to establish a traffic squad in the City under the supervision of the City Marshal, this service to be in connection with similar service in the City of Tracy and to cover the services of a mounted traffic officer for three days per week at $10.00 per day. It was decided, tentatively, that the Board ~~would~~ providing that the City of Tracy adopted this service, ~~the City~~ would employ Mr Jackson for a trial period of three months.

Supt. of Public Utilities, J.A.Henning, submitted a letter received by him from Mr H.D.Miller of the Western States Gas & Electric Company wherein his Company set a price of $614.47 on their power transmission line to the City's pump on the Sanguinetti place; this price included six poles, wire, fixtures, cross arms, 3 - 3 KW 2200-4400 volt transformers, cut-outs and meter. Trustee Shattuck stated that he had personally viewed the line and thought the price in excess of replacement cost and on his motion, seconded by Trustee Mettler, the Clerk was directed to submit the Company an offer of $450 for the line subject to acceptance on or before April 20th., 1925.

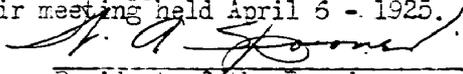

Four building permits at a total estimated cost of $2,250.00 were allowed. The application of Yee Lee to build a frame garage at #212 N. Sacramento Street was denied as being within the fire limits.

On motion of Trustee Mettler, the Board adjourned.

Attest:

City Clerk.

The foregoing minutes of the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi were read and approved without correction at their meeting held April 6 - 1925.

President of the Board.
