ADMINISTRATIVE CLERK I/II - CONFIDENTIAL

DEFINITION:

Under direction provides a variety of routine to moderately difficult office support to various City departments and offices, which may include public contact, providing information, recordkeeping, specialized processing related to the department to which assigned, typing, word processing, and establishing and maintaining file systems; and performs related work as required.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

Administrative Clerk I is the entry level of the City's office series. Incumbents learn and perform a variety of office support and general clerical duties requiring the acquisition of knowledge of departmental and City procedures. This class is flexibly staffed with Administrative Clerk II, and incumbents normally advance to the higher level after gaining experience and achieving proficiency which meet the requirements for Administrative Clerk II.

Administrative Clerk II is the fully qualified, journey level class of this series, competent to perform a variety of office support and clerical duties. Positions are characterized by the presence of guidelines from which to make decisions, and the availability of supervision to resolve non-routine problems encountered.

These positions assist or act in a confidential capacity to persons who participate in the formation, determination, or implementation of City management policies in the field of employer-employee relations.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED:

Administrative Clerk I initially receives close supervision. As experience is gained, there is greater independence of action within established guidelines. Administrative Clerk II works under general supervision from higher level clerical staff, or professional or managerial personnel.

Administrative Clerk II may direct the work of part-time or temporary clerical staff, but is not considered a lead level of classification.
