SPECIFICATIONS FOR THE PUBLICATION OF LEGAL NOTICES IN CONFORMANCE WITH SECTION 37907
OF THE GOVERNMENT CODE OF THE STATE OF CAL-IFORNIA

- (1) The publication let hereunder shall consist of all ordinances, resolutions, reports and notices including publications in special assessment proceedings, required by law to be published in a newspaper of general circulation.
- (2) All matter shall be set in solid brevier or eight point type, except headings, which shall be set in eight point black-face type unless specially ordered in larger type. Headings shall be separated from subject matter by not more than two leads.
- (3) Revised proof sheets shall be furnished the City Clerk and no publication will be recognized for payment unless said proof shall have been approved by him. At least twenty plain copies of the matter printed shall be furnished the City Clerk, together with affidavits of publication in duplicate, without extra charge. The price bid shall include five copies of each and every issue of the publication, mailed or delivered to the office of said City Clerk, during the term of the contract to be let hereunder.
- (4) Whenever possible, complete publication shall be had on one page and in one column thereof, and notices of less than one column shall be printed in one column.
- (5) Bidder may be required to certify on bills rendered that the price charged therein is no more than that which would be charged others for publications of like character.
- (6) A reasonable rental charge for type will be allowed when set-up matter is removed from the publisher's office for job printing, or when held for printing in special form.
- (7) Bidders will quote price by column inch.
- (8) Bid forms will be mailed to prospective bidders on request. No bidding deposits will be required.
